STRAND 4.0: PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES

Sub-strand 4.1: Sewing Skills: Knitting

Question Number	Question	Answer	Explanation
1	Which of the following is a basic knitting stitch used in making household articles?	C) Purl stitch	The purl stitch is one of the two fundamental knitting stitches, along with the knit stitch. These two stitches are used in various combinations to create a wide range of knitted fabrics and articles.
2	The two fundamental knitting stitches are:	B) Knit and purl.	The knit and purl stitches are the building blocks of knitting. All other stitches are variations or combinations of these two basic stitches.
3	Which of these household articles can be knitted?	C) Gloves	Gloves are a classic example of a knitted household article. Knitting is well-suited for creating wearable items like gloves, hats, and scarves because it produces a stretchy and warm fabric.
4	Prudently utilise knitting materials means to:	C) Use knitting materials carefully and efficiently.	To prudently utilise something means to use it wisely and with care. In knitting, this means minimizing waste by planning projects, using materials efficiently, and avoiding unnecessary extravagance.
5	When using sharp tools for knitting (like knitting needles or scissors), which value is most crucial to observe?	C) Safety	Safety is the most crucial value. Sharp tools like knitting needles and scissors can cause injury if not handled properly. Observing safety rules helps prevent accidents and protects the user.
6	Creativity skills in knitting involve:	B) Exploring new ideas for knitted articles.	Creativity in knitting goes beyond simply following a pattern. It involves exploring new ideas for designs, colours, and textures, and adapting or creating original patterns to produce unique articles.
7	A knitted article designed to protect hands from cold is a	C) Gloves	Gloves are specifically designed to protect the hands from the cold. They are typically knitted