ii. It involves proper use and protection of resources such as land, water, and animals iii. The students' park clean-up is an example of exercising stewardship by caring for the environment

b) How "love your neighbour as yourself" encourages service (4 marks)
i. Motivates students to care for others' needs as they would for themselves ii. Encourages acts of kindness and generosity without expecting reward iii. Builds a sense of responsibility for the welfare of the community iv. Promotes unity and selflessness in service

c) Long-term benefits for a society guided by sound values (6 marks)
i. Reduction in crime, corruption, and violence ii. Promotion of peace, unity, and national cohesion iii. Creation of responsible, hardworking, and honest citizens iv. Better governance as leaders make just decisions
v. Sustainable use of resources and environmental protection vi. Strong families and stable communities

d) Personal reflection (3 marks)
i. Value: Forgiveness – I forgave a classmate who wronged me instead of holding grudges ii. Value: Responsibility – I take care of my books and assist in chores at home
iii. Value: Honesty – I returned extra change I was given at a shop

STRAND 2: CREATION

2.1 Accounts of Creation

SECTION A: MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS (30 Marks)

Question Number	Question	Answer	Explanation
1	During a nature walk in the school garden, Grade 7 learners observed various plants, insects, and small animals. Their teacher reminded them that all these beautiful things are part of God's handiwork. Which biblical account of creation emphasizes the orderly bringing forth of these	B) The first account of creation (Genesis 1).	Genesis 1 describes a detailed, systematic, and chronological process of creation over six days, emphasizing the orderly nature of God's work.