   Read the story below and then answer questions 1 - 5.

Inter-houses competitions are held in our school once in a year. The second term, which is the longest,has enough time to learn and play different games for that special day. Every student in the whole schoolbelonged to either 'Yellow' or 'Blue' house.All the participants from both houses were prepared and ready that Saturday. The venue was packed to capacity as students of both houses showed up to cheer their players.When majority of the games were played and points awarded to the two houses, the climax of the daywas a hotly contested football match.The sound of the whistle set the ball rolling. Both teams played with lots of energy and skills. Mixed
