Passage A – "The Brave Young Girl"

In a small village in Kisumu, there lived a brave young girl named Achieng. Every morning, she walked to the river to fetch water for her family. One day, she noticed smoke rising from a nearby forest. She ran to warn the villagers, and together they helped put out a fire that could have destroyed their homes. The chief praised Achieng for her courage and quick thinking. From that day, the villagers called her "The Guardian of the Village."
