Passage 1: School Fundraising Event

Last week, our school organized a fundraising event for the new library. The students had to put together a plan for the activities. They came up with exciting games and competitions. Some students gave out flyers to inform parents about the event. The event was successful because everyone put in their effort. Even the local community came along to support the school. At the end of the day, we managed to give away some prizes to the winners of the competitions.
