Reading Text – Section A: "Toby's Diary – School Trip"

Toby was excited about the school trip to Nairobi National Museum. He woke up early, packed his bag, and made sure to bring his notebook and pencil. At school, his friends gathered, and the teacher, Mr. Kamau, checked the attendance. On the bus, Toby sat next to his friend, Amina, and they talked about the exhibits they wanted to see. At the museum, the guide explained the history of Kenya and showed them different artifacts, including old coins, traditional clothing, and fossils. Toby wrote down notes in his diary about the lions, elephants, and ancient tools. During lunch, the students shared stories about their families. Toby realized that visiting the museum made him appreciate Kenya's culture and history.
