Passage:

Read the following short passage about oral presentations before answering questions 1–10.

"During the school assembly, the head boy delivered a speech on the importance of maintaining a clean school environment. He stood confidently on the podium, made eye contact with the audience, and used clear and strong voice projection. He began by greeting everyone politely, then introduced the STRAND, shared key points using examples, and ended by encouraging fellow students to participate in cleaning campaigns. His body language, gestures, and pauses helped emphasize the main ideas and kept the audience engaged."
