The Brave Herdsman of Laikipia

Long ago, in the hills of Laikipia, there lived a young herdsman named Juma. He was known for his courage and honesty. One day, a lion attacked the village's cattle at dawn. While the other villagers hid, Juma ran to protect the herd. He shouted loudly and threw stones, driving the lion away. The village elders praised him for his bravery. Juma's courage became a story told from one generation to the next, teaching children the importance of protecting the community and facing danger bravely.
