Dialogue 1: Preparing for the Cultural Day

Amina: Good morning, James. Have you finished preparing your costume for the cultural day?

James: Not yet, Amina. I'm planning to wear a Maasai shuka. I still need to find the matching beads.

Amina: That's a great choice. I will wear a traditional Kikuyu dress. I also need to practice my dance.

James: Are you performing the traditional dance from your community?

Amina: Yes, it is called Gikuyu dance. Would you like to join us for rehearsal this afternoon?

James: Sure! I will come along. I want to learn it before the event.

Amina: Excellent. Don't forget to put together your props and practice your lines.

James: I will. Thank you for inviting me.
