TOPICAL REVISION QUESTIONS: AKHLAQ (MORAL VALUES) - DIMENSIONS OF MORALITY IN ISLAM

Instructions: Answer all questions in both sections.

Question Number	Question	Answer	Explanations
1	When a principal reminds students to be truthful and honest, these qualities in Islam are known as:	B. Akhlaq (moral values)	Akhlaq is the Arabic term for moral values, good character, and excellent behavior in Islam. It encompasses a Muslim's conduct and manners towards Allah and His creation.
2	What are the primary religious sources that guide a Muslim's good behavior and character?	B. The Qur'an and the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH)	The Qur'an, the holy book of Islam, and the Sunnah, the teachings and practices of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), are the two fundamental and divinely inspired sources for all Islamic moral values.
3	Omar helps a friend with a difficult task, remembering Islamic teachings about aiding others. This act of helping is an example of practicing Islamic moral values to:	B. Earn rewards from Allah	The goal of a Muslim's good deeds, guided by Islamic morality, is to seek the pleasure of Allah and to earn rewards in the Hereafter, not for worldly gain or show.
4	Fatima's teacher explains that a society built on Islamic moral values will be just and harmonious. What is morality's main purpose in promoting an upright society?	B. To maintain peace, justice, social cohesion, and individual well-being	Islamic morality aims to create a society that is just and harmonious. It promotes peace and social cohesion by fostering good relationships and ensuring the rights of all individuals are upheld.
5	Ahmed always speaks respectfully to elders and is kind to younger children. These actions show he views Islamic values as a form of:	B. Ibadah (worship)	In Islam, every good deed, including respecting elders and being kind to children, is considered a form of Ibadah or worship, provided it is done with the intention of pleasing Allah.
6	Mama Amina advises her children to always keep their promises, even when difficult.	B. Trustworthiness	Keeping promises is a fundamental aspect of trustworthiness (Amanah). This