ii. Builds confidence in practicing Islam correctly.
iii. Inspires kindness, honesty, and humility, which earn Allah's pleasure.
iv. Helps Muslims in Kenya live exemplary lives that influence others positively.
v. Boosts personal discipline in worship and daily habits.

4. Yusuf and Following the Prophet's Example

a) Aspects of the Prophet's life and character to emulate (more than four):
i. Honesty and truthfulness (As-Sadiq, Al-Amin).
ii. Kindness and mercy towards others, including animals.
iii. Generosity to the poor, orphans, and needy.
iv. Patience in times of difficulty.
v. Courage in defending justice.
vi. Respect for women and children.
vii. In Kenya, Muslims emulate this by giving sadaqah to orphans, showing fairness in business, and caring for neighbors regardless of religion.

b) Importance of Hadith as a source of Sharia (more than three):
i. It complements and clarifies Qur'anic teachings.
ii. It provides practical examples of how to live Islam.
iii. It guides Muslims on matters not directly mentioned in the Qur'an.
iv. It strengthens the link between believers and the Prophet's Sunnah.
v. In Kenya, Hadith guides daily practices like marriage contracts, inheritance, and conflict resolution in Muslim communities.

TOPICAL REVISION QUESTIONS: HADITH - SELECTED HADITH

Instructions: Answer all questions in both sections.