well-being of the community. (8 Marks)

i. It protects a Muslim's faith by keeping them away from haram.

ii. It promotes justice and fairness in society.

iii. It strengthens family and community trust.

iv. It leads to social stability by reducing corruption and crime.

v. It brings barakah and prosperity in both dunya and akhirah.

vi. It encourages Muslims to be productive and hardworking.

vii. It reduces inequality by encouraging charity and zakat.

viii. It prepares Muslims for accountability before Allah on the Day of Judgment.