

STRAND 2.0: PEOPLE, POPULATION AND RELATIONSHIPS

SUB-STRAND 2.1: HUMAN ORIGIN

SECTION A: MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS (30 Marks)

Instructions: Choose the best answer for each question.

Question Number	Question	Answer	Explanations for the Answers
1	A community in Kenya believes that the first human beings came from a sacred forest. What type of story is this?	C. Traditional	This is a story specific to a community's beliefs and is passed down through generations, which is the definition of a traditional story.
2	Which religious book contains stories about the creation of human beings?	C. Bible	The Bible is a holy book for Christians and contains the story of creation, including Adam and Eve.
3	In a class discussion, Janet said that God created the first humans. Which kind of story is she referring to?	B. Religious theory.	The belief that God created the first humans is a core tenet of many religions and is thus a religious theory of origin.
4	Which one of the following is not a theory of origin of man?	D. Artificial Intelligence theory	While there is a field of study called Artificial Intelligence, it is not a theory of how human beings originated. The other options are recognized theories.
5	Traditional African stories of human origin often begin with:	B. A myth or legend	Traditional stories are often based on myths and legends that are passed down orally and explain a community's beliefs about its origins.
6	Why is it important to learn stories of human origin from different communities?	C. To appreciate diversity and build identity	Learning about various origin stories helps learners understand different cultural perspectives and how these stories shape the identity of communities.
7	The religious story of creation found in Christianity says that the first humans were:	A. Adam and Eve	This is the well-known story of the first human beings according to the Christian Bible.
8	A learner researching how	C. Traditional beliefs	The stories of how different

©COMPETENCE KENYA