SECTION A. (30 MARKS)

1. During group cooking projects, grade 8 learners were advised to add body building and repair foods. Another name for these kind of foods is

   A. vitamins

   B. proteins

   C. carbohydrates

   D. minerals

2. The removal of affected parts of a plant is one method to control diseases. This practice of removing unwanted parts is also known as

   A. pruning

   B. thinning

   C. weeding

   D. gapping

3. Rain water collected from the roofs of buildings is directed to the tanks by

   A. conveyer

   B. taps

   C. pipes

   D. gutters

Use the diagram below to answer questions 4 and 5.

4. In his kitchen garden, Mr. Muchunku placed the containers as shown above. The main advantage of this practice is

   A. free from pest

   B. source of income

   C. using available space

   D. serves as ornamental

5. Which of the following crops is least likely to be growing in the setup shown above?

   A. Carrots

   B. Spinach

   C. Maize

   D. Onions