AGRICULTURE & NUTRITION

SECTION A

1. Grade 8 learners discussed about water conservation in agricultural environment.

Which one of the following is not an importance of water conservation?

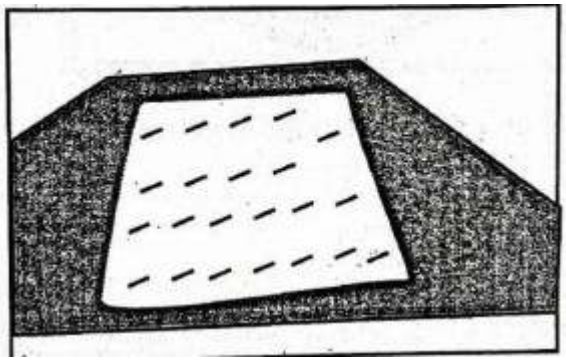

A. It makes water available for use for a longer time.

B. It ensures availability of water for farming purposes.

C. It helps in preventing flooding and destruction caused by runoff.

D. It enables surface runoff carry soil down stream when it is raining.

2. There are various methods of harvesting and storing water for farming purposes. Identify the storage structure drawn below.

A. shallow water pan

B. water ponds

C. water container

D. water tank

3. Which one of the following statements correctly describes strip cropping as a method of soil conservation?

A. It is a channel with grass for draining water out of the farm without displacing or eroding the soil.

B. It is growing crops in alternate strips on the same field to conserve the soil.

C. It is heaping of stones across the slope to prevent soil erosion by reducing the speed of run off.

D. It is heaping of stones across the slope of prevent soil erosion by reducing the speed on run off.

4. Bobo, a Grade 8 learner in Sukuma Junior School would like to grow kales, carrots and dhania on the veranda at the back of their house. What type of gardening did she practise?

A. Nursery bed

B. Moist bed garden

C. Backyard gardening

D. Shallow pits