SIGNAL Publishers

GRADE 9 - 2025

THE SCHOLAR
004

SIGNAL CBC ASSESSMENT
FOURTH TRIAL

JUNIOR SCHOOL ASSESSMENT

— ENGLISH PAPER 1 —

TIME: 1 hr 30 min

Learner's Name:

.....

Grade:

.....

School Name:

.....

Assessment No:

.....

Instructions for Learners:

1. Write down your name, name of your school and assessment number in the spaces provided.
2. This paper consists of 3 sections.
3. Ensure you check the question paper to ascertain that all the pages are printed and that no questions are missing.
4. For each questions, choose the correct answer from the choices given.
5. Be sure to sign the honour pledge below at the end of this assessment.

Score Grid

Section	Maximum Score	Learner's Score	Perfomance Level
Task 1	25
Task 2	10
Task 3	15
	50

Honour pledge: "I swear on my honour that I have not violated the honour code before or during this assessment".

Signature or Initial: _____ Date: _____

...w and then answer questions 1 to 6.

Consumer laws and policies are rules created to protect buyers from unfair practices by sellers. These laws ensure that goods sold are safe, properly labelled, and fairly priced. If a product is faulty, consumers have the right to ask for a replacement, repair or refund. Policies also require that advertisements be truthful and not misleading. Through these laws, consumers are empowered to make informed decisions and demand fair treatment in the marketplace.

1. What is the main purpose of consumer laws and policies?
   A. To allow sellers to advertise more freely.
   B. To ensure sellers make a profit.
   C. To protect buyers from unfair practices.
   D. To reduce the number of products in stores.
2. According to the passage, a consumer has the right to
   A. ignore product instructions
   B. pay less than the market price
   C. keep faulty products without complaining
   D. request a repair, replacement, or refund.
3. Why are truthful advertisements important in consumer protection?
   A. They help increase the popularity of products.
   B. They make sellers more trustworthy.
   €. They ensure buyers are not misled.
   D. They allow companies to use more creativity.
4. Which of the following best describes a "misleading advertisement"?
   A. An ad that gives false information about a product.
   B. An ad that uses bright colors and images.
   C. An ad that is longer than usual.
   D. An ad that compares two similar products.
5. What does the passage suggest about labelling products?
   A. Labels should be attractive.
   B. Labels must provide accurate information.
   C. Labels are only for food items.
   D. Labels can be removed by sellers.

Signal Publishers Limited 2025

Website: www. signalpublishersltd.com. Email. info@signalpublishers.com
Signal Publishers @Signal Publishers

CamScanner