SOCIAL STUDIES

SECTION A (40 MARKS)

1. The growth of kingdom Kongo was contributed by a number of factors. Which one among the following is the factor that contributed to its growth?

A. Abundant fertile lands for agriculture.

B. Lack of a centralised government.

C. Limited interaction with neighboring communities.

D. Scarcity of trade opportunities.

2. As a community we should live peacefully with one another. The following are examples of factors that promote peaceful coexistence in the community except?

A. Mutual respect among community members.

B. Fair distribution of resources.

C. Discrimination and prejudice.

D. Effective communication and conflict resolution.

3. Grade 8 learners of Tabao Junior School were to carry out Community Service Learning. The learners need to prepare adequately for the project first, which one among the following is a reason why they need to prepare for the project first?

A. To ensure the project is completed in the shortest time possible.

B. To identify the needs of the community and set clear objectives.

C. To make sure every learner is equally involved in the decision-making process.

D. To ensure that the community members will offer immediate assistance during the project.

4. The image below shows an example of vegetation.

Identify the type of vegetation.

A. Forest vegetation

B. Mountain vegetation

C. Swamp vegetation

D. Mangrove vegetation

5. During the Stone Age period, early humans in Africa practiced some economic activities. The following are examples of economic activities they practiced except?

A. Hunting and gathering

B. Fishing