SOCIAL STUDIES

SECTION A: (20mks)

1. During the Early Stone Age period, human beings made tools from stone. The tools were mainly used for

A. farming, fishing, hunting

B. drawing, painting, farming

C. hunting, skinning, digging

D. fishing, painting, farming

2. Kenya has moderately high birth rate. This is mainly because

A. people within reproductive age are more

B. of improvement in healthcare

C. most people live in rural areas

D. of increase in agricultural production

3. Before choosing a career pathway, it is important to consider some factors. One of these factors is

A. age of the learners

B. what other learners have chosen

C. other people with similar careers

D. learners abilities.

4. Grade 9 learners would like to find out the problems facing people in the neighbouring community. They can best get this information from

A. asking fellow learners

B. using questionnaires on the people

C. sending teachers to find out the problems

D. reading books about the community.

5. It is important to embrace peace at community level. Community elders promote peace in their communities by

A. punishing people who break laws.

B. using peaceful methods to solve disputes

C. sending teachers to find out the problems

D. leading communities in war.

6. Grade 9 learners researched on contribution of poverty reduction strategies in the society. One of the contributions they found was that it leads to

A. improvement in quality of life

B. increase in population

C. increase in birth rate

D. increase in migration to towns.

7. A common factor about the population of Kenya and the population of Germany is that in both countries,

A. most people live in towns

B. people over 60 years old are more

C. major towns are densely populated

D. there is low dependancy rate.

8. A shopping centre near your school is littered with plastic papers and bottles. Grade 9 learners can solve this problem by