TASK I: LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Listen to the following scene being read by the teacher and respond to the questions.

It was on Sunday after church service, your parents prepared a common lunch for the whole family and was served. While on the table eating you get choked with food.

1. Which word will you use to request for water?
2. How do you eat while with others on the same table?
3. After the meal what are you supposed to say to the one who prepared it?
4. What is the first action to do before eating?
5. How should you sit while having meals on the dining table?

TASK II: READING ALOUD

Read the following story aloud as instructed by the teacher.

A rich landowner named Carl often rode around his estate so he could congratulate himself on his great wealth. One day while riding around his estate on his favorite horse, he saw Hans, an old tenant farmer. Hans was sitting under a tree when Carl rode by.

Hans said, 'I was just thanking God for my food.' Carl protested, 'If that is all I had to eat, I wouldn't feel like giving thanks.' Hans replied, 'God has given me everything I need and I am thankful for it.'

He was the richest man in the valley, so he invited his doctor to his house that evening. Carl told the doctor what Hans had said. After a thorough examination, the doctor told the wealthy landowner, 'Carl, you are as strong and healthy as a horse. Nevertheless, for assurance, the doctor stayed with Carl, and they played cards through the night. The doctor left the next morning and Carl apologized for becoming so upset.
