Task 1: Listening and speaking

1. Listen to the teacher as he / she reads the story for you and answer the questions that follow. (5 mks)

Many people, young and old, like tea. Do you like tea? If you like tea, you need to know how to prepare it. There is nothing as easy to prepare as tea. To make good Kenyan tea, you first need to have every thing ready. You need water, tea leaves, milk and sugar. You put the water in a sufuria, place it on fire and bring it to boil.

Questions

a) What do many people like?_____

b) What do you like to take with your tea?_____

c) What do you need when preparing tea?_____ b _____

e) _____

d) How do you make tea at home?_____

Task 2: Reading Aloud

Read the story below aloud as the teacher listens.

Long ago families lived in huts. The huts were simple. The roofs were made of palm tree leaves. The people worked together. They did different activities at different times of the year. The children went to school every day but their school was different. The lessons were given in the evening around a big camp fire. The grandfathers and grandmothers were the teachers.
