ENGLISH - GRADE 5 TERM 2 CBC EXAMS 2022

Read the following conversation and then answer questions 1 to 5.

Mother: Come here my son. Bring your books with you books with you. I'd like us to check the arrangement of your work in every learning area. Come on, take the books out.

Son: Of late, I have been arranging my work neatly. Our class teacher, Miss Tari, told all of us the importance of doing so.

Mother: Please open your Mathematics exercise books, both class work and homework as I check English.

Son: Here, can't you see? This is how our Mathematics teacher wants us to arrange our work. Isn't it neat, mama?

Mother: Wow! I am very proud of both you and your teachers. All the work looks well arranged, neat, marked and corrections done. Indeed, you deserve a present from me, son! Come on let us go to the supermarket. I can't wait to get you a gift.

Son: Yees!

1. What did the mother want to check from his son's books?
    A. The amount of work given by the teachers
    B. The arrangement of her son's work.
    C. Some unmarked work, if any,
    D. The cleanliness of the son's books.
2. Whose idea was it to always be arranging the work neatly? The
    A. mother's
    B. son's
    C. class teacher's
    D. pupils'.
3. Towards the end of the conversation, the mother seems
    A. disappointed.
    B. disorganised.
    C. sad.
    D. happy.
4. Evidently, the mother thinks that the teachers