TASK 1: LISTENING AND SPEAKING

Read the story and answer the questions that follow.

Teachers have relatives just like you . Your teachers were once kids like you are now. When I was just six years old, I lived with my parents and little brother. My grandparents had a huge yard. There was a cow that grazed in the yard. The most interesting place was the chicken house. There were eight hens in the chicken house that laid fresh eggs and one rooster that would crow every morning to wake us up.

Questions

1. Teachers have _____ (Learner responds)
2. Teachers were once?(Learner responds)
3. How old was the teacher when he was living with his parents? (Learner responds)
4. What grazed in the yard? (Learner responds)
5. What used to wake them up early in the morning? (Learner responds)

READING ALOUD (5 marks)

Read the story below loudly.

Our school is located in Tena town. We go to school in the morning by bus. The bus picks us up at our estate. Our school bus driver is very polite. He drives the bus very carefully and at the right speed. Everybody loves him.

Our classteacher is called teacher Kim. He teaches us very well. He is always very neat. All the pupils wish to be smart like him. We love our classteacher.

TASK 2: READING COMPREHENSION. (10 marks)

Passage 1

Read the story and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time,there lived a little rabbit named Charlie.
There was drought in the forest and food was hard to find. Charlie's family was hungry. He had to find food for them. Charlie was a small rabbit who had a big heart. He went to look for food in the forest. As he walked through the forest, he found a patch of berries. He was about to grab some when he heard a growl. A large wolf appeared.

Charlie was terrified. He quickly hopped to a nearby hole and hid. The wolf waited for a while but eventually left. Charlie gathered as many berries as he could carry and made the long journey home. He was tired and cold, but the thought of his family kept him going. When he finally got back, his family was happy. Charlie was a hero!

Questions

6. The name of the little rabbit was _____
7. Charlie's family was _____
8. How did Charlie feel when he saw the wolf? _____
9. Charlie carried _____ to his family.
10. Charlie is a _____ animal. (young, brave)