Read the story below aloud.

A forest can be a dangerous place to go on your on as a child. You are always advised not to play in the forest or wonder in the forest on your own. Many bad things can happen in the forest. Firstly, you can easily be kidnapped while roaming in the forest and something bad done to you by the kidnappers or they can also ask for a ransom from your family in order to set you free. Secondly you can be attacked by wild animals like wild dogs, snakes and many other dangerous animals.

Thirdly in case you get lost you can catch a cold or even get pneumonia because of the very low temperatures experienced in the dense forest. Lastly you can get pricked by thorns, or even touch poisonous leaves which can be a threat to your health
