Read the dialogue below and then answer questions 1 to 5.

Father: What is the matter? Why has the water stopped running from the kitchen tap?

Amina: The main water pipe in the estate burst this morning. I cannot even wash the dinner plates.

Kiprono: And I cannot fill my water bottle for school tomorrow either.

Father: Where is the plastic storage tank we placed behind the store?

Amina: It is completely empty too. We have not collected any rainwater because it has been sunny all week.

Kiprono: The weather has been hot and dry every single day.

Father: We will have to buy a large metallic drum tomorrow to store extra clean water.

Kiprono: But what will we cook with tonight?

Amina: You can tell grandmother that we cannot prepare the evening meal.

Father: No, that will not do. Let us purchase a few clean containers of fresh water from the water vendor so that we can cook.

Amina: We will need enough containers to provide drinking and cooking water for the whole house.
