COMPETENCE BASED CURRICULUM
HOMEWORK ENGAGEMENT PROGRAM
GRADE 5 2024 AUGUST
INTEGRATED ACTIVITY

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

1. Grade four learners were discussing about the effects of force on objects. Which among the following is not true about force?
    A. Can stop moving objects
    B. Cannot change shape of objects
    C. Can change direction of moving objects
    D. Can start movement of an object
2. A piece of wood can float on water in a basin while a five shilling coin sinks in water in the same basin. What makes the piece of wood to float while the coin sinks?
    A. Shape
    B. Amount of water
    C. Size
    D. Material
3. The following are signs and symptoms of a cold as one of the respiratory diseases. Which one among them is not?

    A. Sore throat
    B. Chest pain
    C. Fever
    D. Cough
4. Owino visited a clinic in his community and was able to learn about different diseases which are common in the community. Which among the following is not a prevention against typhoid?
    A. Draining stagnant water
    B. Drinking boiled or treated water
    C. Washing hands before eating
    D. Using toilets properly
5. In computers, which among the following features shows the shortcuts to some programs in the desktop computers?

    A. Start button
    B. Title bar
    C. Space bar
    D. Desktop icons
6. When typing a document, a learner wanted to move a certain information from page one to page two. What best advice can you give him to make his work more easier?
    A. To duplicate the information
    B. To ignore transferring the information
    C. To cut and paste the information he wants
    D. To delete the information and type it again when he wants the information
7. The diagram below represents a model of a human breathing system.