Read the following conversation and anser questions 1-5

Mambo : Hello Lenichiro. Where are you going? Is it still break time?

Lenchiro : It is still break time. Hello Mambo. I am taking this book to the library. I was just finishing the last page. It is one of the most interesting story books I have ever read.

Mambo : What was the book all about?

Lenchiro : It was about a boy, Kadawa, who was addicted to drugs and substance abuse. The boy dropped out of school and joined the bad boys in town.

Mambo : Oh my! Why did poor Kadawa decide to do that?

Lenchiro : It was because his new friends in town persuaded him to do so. They also threatened to chase him from their group if he refused to comply.

Mambo : I also think that idleness contributes to indulgence in drugs and substance abuse. The boys must have been idle.

Lenchiro : Exactly. But the good thing is Kadawa was taken back to their village Mchangabaridi, where he reformed and resumed school.

Mambo : Wow! Thank God.
