GRADE SIX - 2026
SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

6

Name:.....

School: .....

Grade: ..... Date:.....

1. Living things has common characteristics, identify a group which comprises only characteristics of living things.
   A. They reproduce, they feed, they grow, they die
   B. They breathe, they move, they remove waste, they dance
   C. They die, they move, they have beaks, they feed on grains
   D. They reproduce, they die, they respond to environment changes They are all fat and tall.

2. In human digestive system, digestion starts from the _____ and ends at the _____,
   A. Stomach and intestine
   B. Mouth and anus
   C. Gullet and rectum
   D. Mouth and stomach

3. Which group has only the three states of matter.
   A. Gas, animals, solids
   B. Solids, trees, gas
   C. Gas, liquid, solid
   D. Liquid, paraffin, timber

4. What is force?
   A. Pull and drill on an object
   B. Pull and push on an object
   C. Carry and pull on an object
   D. Push and move on an object

5. Which among the following groups comprise only natural sources of light.
   A. Sun, star, fireflies, lightning, glowworms
   B. Candle, lamp, star, glowworms, sun
   C. Torch, electricity, fireflies, star, candle
   D. Fireflies, lightning, glowworms, torch, lamp

6. Which one of the following is not the importance of fungi in nature.
   A. Fungi are used in cooking process
   B. Fungi are used in making medicine
   C. Fungi are used as food
   D. Fungi are used as a source of light

7. The following are examples of fungi in the environment. Identify the group which has only fungi.
   A. Bread mould, puffballs, toadstools, mushroom
   B. Toadstools, mushroom, puffballs, bread
   C. Puffballs, bread mould, mushroom, balls
   D. Mushroom, puffballs, bread mould, timber